PROCLAMATION

Anent Persons Denounced Fugitive, before the Justices, for their being in the late Rebellion 1679. and Resetting of Rebels ; With the L I S T S of the saids Fugitives.

CHARLES, by the Grace of God, King of Great-Britain, France and Ireland, Defender of the Faith; To Our Lovits, Macers of Our Privy Council, and Messengers at Arms, Our Sheriffs in that part, conjunctly and severally, specially constitute, Greeting: Forasmuch, as We considering the frequent Rebellions that have been lately raised by rebellious and unnatural Subjects, within this Our Ancient Kingdom, contrair to their native Allegiance, to the destruction of Our Government, and the Peace and Quiet of all Our good People, and the extravagant and impious Principles, which have been the necessar and fatal consequences thereupon ensuing, We did amongst other Remedies, Ordain these who were in Arms, and these who had reset them, to be legally cited before Our Justices, to the effect they might be tryed, and notwithstanding that all fair and legal opportunities of defending their own innocence, had been offered them; yet many of them being now denounced Rebels and Fugitives from Our Laws, We are resolved to prosecute them, till they be brought to condign punishment; And therefore We have appointed an exact Roll of the saids persons, so Denounced, to be Printed, Requiring all Our Subjects, not only not to comfort, or harbour the saids persons, but likewise to do their utmost endeavours to apprehend them, as far as in their power, and to give notice to Our next Sheriffs, Baillies of Bailliries and Regalities, Stewarts, of Stewartries, Magistrats of Burrows, and other Officers and Ministers of Our Law, and to the Officers of Our Army, when they know that any of them lurks in their Bounds: As also, in caise there be any contained in the saids Rolls, and List, that have been Denounced through their negligence or ignorance, although they have subscribed the Bond, or taken the Test, as was prescribed by Our former Proclamations: Therefore We, with Advice of Our Privy Council, yet allow any of the saids persons, who shall betwixt and the first of August next ensuing clear to Our Justices, that they have taken the Bond or Test, in due time, to be thereupon Relaxed gratis, before Our Justices; And Our Justices are hereby allowed to desert the Dyet against them; they compearing and being Relaxed, as said is: And to the end it may be better cleared who have taken the said Bond and Test, all persons who were Commissionat to Administrat the same, are hereby Required and Commanded to send in to the Clerks of Our Privy Council, the Bond and Test so taken before them betwixt and the said first day of ~~August~~ next, certifying them if they failzie. Letters of Herring shall be ~~sent~~ against them, under the Signet of Our Privy Council, to that effect upon a Charge of six days under the pain of Rebellion, &c. And to the effect our Pleas in the Premises may be made known; Our Willis, and We Charge you straitly and Command, that incontinent these Our Letters be past to the Mercat Cross of Edinburgh, and remanent Mercat Crosses of the head Burghs of the Shires of this Kingdom, and other places needful; and there, by open Proclamation, make publication of the Premises, that all persons concerned may have notice thereof.

Given under Our Signet at Edinburgh, the fifth day of May, One thousand six hundred eighty and four. And of Our Reign, the thirtieth and sixth Year.

Per actum Dominorum Secreti Concilij.
